Naming of Allen Bolden Pool

Allen Bolden was an honor student and 1985 graduate of Lamar High School. He had just received a scholarship to TCU when he was murdered on June 28, 1985. He had been captain of the swim team that included all Arlington high schools, and he had his sights on becoming an Olympian.

Allen received numerous honors including being named one of the Top 16 swimmers nationwide in 1982, qualifying for the US Junior Olympics in 1984 and breaking a Texas state free-style record. He gave back to the community by serving as a lifeguard and swimming instructor. He was widely admired and respected both as a person and for his love of swimming.
